Parent Newsletter – 2.12.22

Dear Families,

It is beginning to look a lot like Christmas at NRJ! Some very special visitors have arrived all over school this week, causing great excitement and mischief! Thank you for all your generous donations towards the Christmas fair, which is taking place on Wednesday 7th December, 4pm – 7pm.

I know what an amazing community we are at Nevill Road and ask that you take a minute to look at the following link that has been set up to help one of our lovely parents. <https://gofund.me/1bf0fc49>

Christmas is a wonderful time of year but for some it can be a real struggle. We have sent out several leaflets with information about support that is available for families that may be feeling the current strains of the cost of living. Please contact us if you need any further information. We are always here to help.

Our Curriculum

Rehearsals are underway for the Christmas choir concert at St. George's next week (Tuesday 6th December – 7.00pm). This will be the first time in several years that the event has taken place – it really is a magical evening!

As part of their History topic, Year 4 have been learning about life in Ancient Greece. They have been finding out about what life would have been like if they were an Athenian or a Spartan. They particularly enjoyed acting out Spartan training routines.

Today we have been enjoying a Feel Good Friday. Every class has taken part in a fitness session with Mr Addison and played board games with their friends. They have also been getting their Christmas doors ready for next week's judging day!

Keeping our children safe

I am very pleased to share that in our parent questionnaire, 98% of you felt that your child is safe at school. In the past two weeks I have been observing classroom practice and in every class I visited, there was a calm and focused learning environment where all children were on task. I really do have a fantastic team of staff, who work so incredibly hard for our amazing children each and every day.

Thank you for your support and I hope you manage to squeeze in some Christmas shopping at the weekend!

Kind regards, Mrs Cliff.
